Daytime Performances for Students Are Back!

All Shows at Heymann Performing Arts Center

PASA offers two daytime performances for students in grades 6-12.
- Each show has two performances: 9 am and 11:30 am.
- Each show will last approximately 70 minutes.
- Seat availability is on a first come, first served basis, so please register your school in advance.
- Materials for classroom use will be provided to teachers two weeks before the performances.
- Please follow the instructions and fill out the order forms accordingly.

Cross That River
9 and 11:30 a.m. February 14, 2023

A quarter of the cowhands in the West were Black. Cross That River, a concert musical, tells the story of Blue, a run-away slave who escapes from Louisiana to Texas and becomes one of America’s first Black Cowboys. Cross That River portrays a significant moment in American history, when Black cowboys lived and helped settle the West.

Momix: Alice
9 and 11:30 a.m. Mar. 9, 2023

Travel down the rabbit hole MOMIX-style with Moses Pendleton's newest creation, ALICE, inspired by the Adventures of Alice in Wonderland. As Alice’s body grows, shrinks and grows again, Pendleton’s dancers extend themselves by means of props, ropes, and other tricks. See how creativity combines with literature, physics, creative thinking and dance for an unbelievably fun show.

Registration in advance is required. Admission $5/student.
